Summary

It is the policy of the State University of New York (University) to comply with legal requirements of §6436 of Article 129-A of New York State Education Law (Regulation by Colleges of Conduct on Campuses and Other College Property Used for Educational Purposes). Accordingly, campuses must provide information to incoming students regarding bias-related crime and its prevention.

Policy

I. Bias-related Crime Prevention

It is the policy of the State University of New York (University) to comply with legal requirements of §6436 of Article 129-A of New York State Education Law (Regulation by Colleges of Conduct on Campuses and Other College Property Used for Educational Purposes). Accordingly, campuses must provide information to incoming students regarding bias-related crime and its prevention.

A. Education and Information - Each campus shall inform incoming students about bias-related crime prevention measures through programs which may include workshops, seminars, discussion groups and film presentations, in order to disseminate information about bias-related crime, promote discussion, encourage reporting of incidents of bias-related crime and facilitate prevention of such incidents. Specifically, these education and informational programs should include, but not be limited to, the following subjects:

1. the applicable laws, ordinances, and regulations on bias related crime, including the provisions and coverage of the hate crimes act of 2000 codified in article 485;
2. the penalties for commission of bias related crimes;
3. the procedures in effect at the college for dealing with bias related crime;

4. the availability of counseling and other support services for the victims of bias related crime;
 5. the nature of and common circumstances relating to bias related crime on college campuses; and
 6. the methods the college employs to advise and to update students about security procedures.
