Summary

It is the policy of the State University of New York (University) to permit loans under the University's Optional Retirement Program (ORP). Participants may take one loan per carrier within a twelve-month period. All loans are subject to IRS regulations.

Policy

It is the policy of the State University of New York (University) to permit loans under the University's Optional Retirement Program (ORP).

- A. ORP participants may take one loan per carrier within a twelve-month period.
- B. All loans are subject to IRS regulations, which currently allow a loan balance of no more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) from all pension and tax-deferred annuity plans combined.
- C. Loans are subject to rules promulgated by Optional Retirement Program (ORP) carriers in respect to matters such as funds from which loans may be made, percentage of accumulated value that may be borrowed, if less than 50%, and minimum balances required.
- D. It is the participant's responsibility to ensure that Internal Revenue Service (IRS) limits are not exceeded.

E. Interest will be charged.

F. The loan must be repaid within a five-year period, unless it is used to fund the purchase of a primary residence.

G. ORP carriers may have their own additional regulations, which result in a lesser amount of funds being available.
