

Sample Questions for Undergraduate Research Survey:

Set 1:

(From Marwan)

Does your institution promote undergraduate research?

2. At your institution are undergraduate research activities promoted and coordinated at the department level, dean level or provost level?
3. What disciplines require undergraduate research projects? (we may list broad categories of disciplines)
4. Are the undergraduate research projects parts of course requirements?
5. Are the undergraduate research projects limited to some independent studies courses?
6. Are the results of undergraduate research projects in the form of:
 - A) Written paper or report presented to the instructor or mentor
 - B) Oral presentation to class
 - C) Oral presentation to wider audience than just classmates, e.g. expos and institutionally- sponsored workshops.
 - D) Presentation at a (regional or national) disciplinary conference
 - E) Paper Publication
 - F) Publication in electronic media
7. Have you implemented student survey to assess the benefits to students from undergraduate research?
8. Do student perceive great benefits from undergraduate research? What are these benefits?
9. Have you implemented faculty survey to assess the benefits to students from undergraduate research?
10. Do Faculty perceive great benefits from undergraduate research? What are these benefits?
11. Do you think there is a need to promote undergraduate research further than the current state at your institution?
12. How do you propose to enhance undergraduate research?