Summary

This policy outlines the circumstances under which participants in the State University of New York’s (University) Optional Retirement Program (ORP) shall be permitted to make lump-sum withdrawal of all or any portion of all accumulations.

Policy

A. Lump-sum withdrawal of all or any portion of all accumulations by a participant in the State University of New York’s (University) Optional Retirement Program (ORP) shall be permitted under the following circumstances:

1. upon the participant’s resignation, termination or retirement from service, without regard to the participant’s age; and

2. prior to a participant’s resignation, termination or retirement from service;

   a. if the participant is receiving benefits under the University’s group long-term disability program; or

   b. if the University determines that the participant suffers a serious financial hardship as described below;

       i. medical expenses for the employee, spouse, and dependents in excess of 7.5% of adjusted gross income; or
ii. preventing foreclosure on/or eviction from the employee’s principal residence.

B. Because of Internal Revenue Service (IRS) regulations, this policy applies only to contributions made prior to January 1, 1990 and to earnings credited prior to January 1, 1990.

C. The ORP carriers will administer the hardship withdrawal provisions.

D. Employees will self-certify that they have an immediate and heavy financial need due to one of the above two hardships listed above and that the withdrawal is necessary to satisfy the need.
