religious holiday, such observances shall then be conducted on the second Friday in September; September eleventh, known as Patriot Day or September 11th Remembrance Day; the second Monday in October, known as Columbus Day; the eleventh day of November, known as Veterans Day; the fourth Thursday in November, known as Thanksgiving Day; the seventh day of December, known as Pearl Harbor Day; and the twenty-fifth day of December, known as Christmas Day, and if any of the aforementioned days except Flag Day falls on a Sunday, the next day thereafter; each general election day; and each day appointed by the President of the United States or by the Governor of the State of New York as a day of general thanksgiving or for displaying the flag.

2. The flag shall not be displayed on days when the weather is inclement except when an all-weather flag is displayed.

3. The flag may be displayed twenty-four hours a day if properly illuminated during the hours of darkness.

4. The flag shall be displayed in or near every polling place on election days.

5. The flag shall be hoisted briskly and lowered ceremoniously.

6. When a number of flags of states or localities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs, the flag of the United States of America shall be at the center and at the highest point of the group.

7. The flag, when flown at half-staff, shall be first hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-staff position. The flag shall be again raised to the peak before it is lowered for the day. "Half-staff" means lowering the flag to one-half the distance between the top and bottom of the staff. Crepe streamers shall not be affixed to spear heads or flagstaffs except by order of the President of the United States or the Governor of the State of New York.

8. The flag shall not be displayed with the union down except as a signal of dire and immediate distress.

9. The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display shall be destroyed in a dignified way by burning.

10. The flag shall be flown at full staff at all times except it shall be flown at half-staff on Memorial Day until noon and at the top of the staff for the rest of the day; Peace Officers Memorial Day on May 15, unless that day also falls on Armed Services Day; Patriot Day or September 11th Remembrance Day on September 11; the seventh day of December, known as Pearl Harbor Day; and to commemorate the death of a personage of national or state standing or of a local serviceman, official or public servant who, in the opinion of the local agency concerned, contributed to the community. It may also be flown at half-staff during special periods of mourning designated by the President of the United States or the Governor of the State of New York.

11. The National League of Families POW/MIA flag is flown on Memorial Day, POW Remembrance Day (third Friday of September), and Veterans Day. The flag should be displayed beneath the national flag if there is no third staff available.
